

6516205967.txt

I have had XM radio for almost 2 years now and didn't think it could get any better until they announced the local traffic and weather. Living in the Atlanta area, I have not gotten the service yet but it is highly anticipated by everyone I know that has XM. I think it is ridiculous that anyone would try to keep it from us. Before XM I didn't listen to the regular radio anyway--I only listened to CDs.